Process in Development of Question Bank

- The question paper comprises of multiple choice or true false and the descriptive question.
- The question paper is designed based on the syllabus and covers all the sections of the syllabus.
- The question paper is designed based on the following:
 - Module number
 - Topics covered
 - Bloom's Taxonomy Level
 - Difficulty level
 - Marks
 - Language
- The module number is based on the syllabus as per the sections for example, section A is module no 1, section B is module no 2 and so on.
- The question bank covers all the topics of the syllabus as per the modules for example module 1 is planning and module 2 is organizing then faculty needs to prepare the questions from all the topics mentioned in the syllabus.
- The bloom's taxonomy level includes questions based on the understanding, remembering, analysing and evaluating depending on the nature of the questions.
- The difficulty level is defined on the scale of 1 to 3 which is as follows:
 - 1- Difficult
 - 2- Moderate
 - 3- Easy
- The faculty needs to define the mark of every question while preparing the question bank.
- The language of the paper should be mentioned in the question bank for example, English, Punjabi etc.
